

MARINI TOOL AND DIE ANNOUNCES NAME CHANGE

RACINE, WI – (November 29, 2011) – After doing business as Marini Tool and Die Company, Inc. since 1952, Marini officials announce that they are changing their name to Marini Manufacturing, Inc.

The name change will become effective in early December and will coincide with their 60th Anniversary in 2012.

“Our new name represents what we have grown to be,” said Thomas G. Marini, President and CEO of Marini Manufacturing. “Over the last two decades we have evolved into a precision machining company and have exited out of the tooling business.”

Thomas Marini is the third generation to lead the corporation, following in the footsteps of his father and grandfather.
